

"HAPPYMAN"

story of a man, from childhhod he didn't know what he wants to do in future until one day when his father was watching news while he was sitting beside his father and brother. news show funeral of martyred soilders he was fascinated by the amount of respect given to them everyone eyes wass filled with strange emotion he couldnot understand were those people proud were they sad he didn't know what he knew was the world noticed their death.that became his dream to that when he die world notice his absence.